The Guardsman

About us

The Guardsman is the official bi-weekly newspaper of City College of San Francisco reaching a range of 70,000 – 100,000 students and teachers across 11 campuses.

Since its inception in 1935, the paper has repeatedly captured awards in all categories including seven consecutive General Excellence honors for producing one of the best community college newspapers in the state and region.

Our Readers

City College is the largest multi-campus single community college district in the nation and the second compared to four-year institutions.

Educating more than 70,000 students annually, City College offers credit and non-credit classes at 11 campuses throughout the city and county of San Francisco.

City College provides innovative educational programs that are affordable and accessible to a large metropolitan area. Students represent a broad spectrum of the community – from those preparing for transfer to a four-year college or university to working adults updating job skills or seeking a career change.
