

November 2017

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
			1	2	3	4
5	6	7	8	9 	10	11
12 	13	14	15 	16	17	18
19	20	21	22	23	24	25
26	27	28	29	30	31

Water Rights, Environmental Protection & Peace in the Middle East Lecture & Discussion ♦ Thurs, Nov. 9

11 am - 12:30 pm | Ocean Campus, MUB 140

This lecture is presented by CCSF Critical Middle East / SWANA Studies and the Concert & Lecture Series. Free and open to the public.

Ocean Air Market ♦ Sun, Nov. 12

12 pm - 5 pm | Ocean Avenue Unity Plaza

Community members can meet Artists and makers while shopping for locally made crafts and jewelry. This event is made possible in part by the Ocean Avenue Association, the San Francisco Arts Commission and Dahlia Community Engagement.

A Womb of Their Own screening ♦ Wed, Nov. 15

6 pm - 8 pm | Ocean Campus, Rosenberg Library room 305

A Womb of Their Own screening and Q/A with the filmmaker.

T'ai Chi Chih Training ♦ Sat, Nov. 18

10 am - 3:15 pm | Chinatown Campus Room 401

CCSF Older Adults and Concert & Lecture Series present: Movements and One Pose with Sandy McAlister. Free and open to the public.

Ongoing

Handwoven Textile Arts from Mindanao Exhibit ♦ Sept. 18 – Nov. 28

The Mills Building, 220 Montgomery Street, San Francisco

The Hinabi Project (THP) 2017, The Art of Philippine Textiles, provides to the American and international community beautiful examples of Mindanao textile designs from traditional to contemporary.

CCSF Photo Club Exhibit, “Quiet” ♦ Sept. 18 – Nov. 28

Gallery Obscura (Visual Arts 160), Ocean Campus

CCSF Photo Club, a student club, presents “Quiet”. This is a group exhibition of photographs, each with the photographer’s unique interpretation of what “quiet” means.

Tapestry -- Woven Art ♦ Oct. 20 – Dec 15

John Adams Center Library

Come see pieces created over the past academic year by students from Deborah Corsini’s Fashion 6008 course have created vibrant works of art using tapestry weaving.

Free “Teotihuacan“ Exhibition ♦ Ends February 11

De Young Museum holds a once-in-a lifetime exhibition showcasing 200 artifacts from Teotihuacan, the most visited archaeological site in Mexico from now to February 11. The exhibition explores how artworks from the ancient city shape our understanding of Teotihuacan as an urban environment. There is free admission when you book your group in advance.